

PRAGUE- MUN

(<http://www.praguemun.cz/>)

In February 2014 the Model United Nations Prague organization is hosting the third Prague Model United Nations Conference at the University of Economics in Prague and the Vienna Model United Nations Club is intending to send a delegation to this simulation conference.

At this year's Prague Model United Nations Conference (PragueMUN) up to two hundred delegates are expected to attend. The conference itself does not only consist of simulations of various different UN bodies, debates and diplomatic work, but also a great variety of social activities.

Duration:

The Conference will take place in the period between Sunday, 16th February and Thursday, 20th February 2014.

Application period:

The application period will end on 30th November. The application process will operate on a first-come, first-served basis, so we would appreciate if you could send us your application for this delegation as soon as possible.

Should you wish to apply as part of this delegation, you should notify us of your wish to participate and you should also inform us which country and which committee you would prefer and what MUN experience you already have so that we can coordinate the application process to ensure that everyone from this delegation can participate at the conference. If you register through this delegation, you DO NOT have to apply individually by filling out the online application form on the website of Prague MUN.

Committees/ Topics:

The conference offers a wide array of topics and committees. In each of the 6 UN bodies two topics will be discussed.

- Economic and Social Council:
 - 1) Post-2015 Millennium Development Goals Framework
 - 2) Reconstruction and development in South Sudan
- Human Rights Council:
 - 1) Increasing Safety to the Press in Armed Conflict
 - 2) Conscientious Objection to Compulsory Military Service #
- Security Council:
 - 1) Dismantling of the Syrian Chemical Weapons Arsenal
 - 2) Peace Talks between FARC and the Colombian Government
- Peacebuilding Commission:
 - 1) Blue-Gold- Water Supply Conflicts
 - 2) Democratization and Nation-Building of Post-Conflict Areas
- United Nations Environment Programme:
 - 1) Alternative Sustainable Energy Sources
 - 2) Water Issues in the Democratic Republic of Congo
- GA Sixth Committee- Legal Committee:
 - 1) Security Council Reform
 - 2) Identity Theft Protection

Conference Fee:

Participation at the conference will cost 45€ This includes conference materials, administrative costs, lunch and coffee breaks.

Accommodation fee will be 55€ for 4 nights. Accommodation will be arranged by PragueMUN for the whole delegation.

Socializing events might require an entrance fee; this will be announced at a later stage by the organizers.

Travelling:

The delegation would travel together from Vienna to Prague by train. The exact expenses for the return ticket will most likely be between 50€ and 70€ depending on the fare and the time when the tickets are booked. The final travelling costs will be announced after the delegation has been formed. Should you wish to travel independently to Prague, you can most certainly do that as well.
