

UNITED NATIONS YOUTH AND STUDENT ASSOCIATION OF AUSTRIA IN VIENNA

INVITATION

Tuesday, 15 May 2007, 7 p.m.

As non-partisan organization for young people, students and graduates interested in international issues the United Nations Youth and Student Association of Austria (UNYSA-AUSTRIA - AFA) regularly organizes lectures and panel discussions to issues of international importance.

With the event series "Nuclear Non Proliferation" the UNYSA-AUSTRIA - AFA in Vienna will give representatives at the International Organizations in Vienna the possibility to underline their positions, discuss them with experts, and will motivate students and young graduates to a lively and especially critical debate on each actors opinion.

Further information available at: <http://afa.at/sispr>

The organizer thanks the U.S. Mission to International Organizations in Vienna for the co-operation.

THE UNITED NATIONS
YOUTH AND STUDENT ASSOCIATION OF AUSTRIA IN VIENNA

in co-operation with

THE AUSTRIAN INSTITUTE FOR INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS

cordially invites to a lecture and panel discussion in the frame of its event series "Nuclear Non Proliferation":

"Two Paths to the Bomb: Iran's Challenge to the United Nations"

Words of Welcome:

Simon TAUER; Chairman of the United Nations Youth and Student Association of Austria in Vienna

Lecturer:

Ambassador Gregory L. SCHULTE; Permanent Representative of the United States of America to the United Nations, the International Atomic Energy Agency and other International Organizations in Vienna

Panelists:

Univ.-Prof. Dr. Heinz GÄRTNER; Austrian Institute for International Affairs
Mag. Gudrun HARRER; Der Standard

Chair:

Univ.-Prof. Dr. Otmar HÖLL; Director of the Austrian Institute for International Affairs

conference language: English refreshments offered after the lecture

Tuesday, 15 May 2007, 7 p.m.

University of Vienna - „Kleiner Festsaal“
1010 Vienna, Dr.-Karl-Lueger-Ring 3

Registration:

E-mail: monika.braun@afa.at