

The United Nations – A View from Within

“The United Nations’ Work in Countering Terrorism”

Lecture followed by a debate with

Dr. Janos TISOVSZKY, Acting Director, United Nations Information Service (UNIS) Vienna

Dr. Tisovszky has been working with the United Nations since October 1990 in several high ranking positions. Over the years his fields of work have included the position of Deputy Director of the United Nations Regional Information Centre (UNRIC) in Brussels, Acting Director of the UN Information Centre in Islamabad and Spokesperson for the President of the 62nd Session of the UN General Assembly. Most recently, his work has extensively focused on UN peace and security issues, in particular in the field of countering terrorism.

Venue: Kaiser-Leopold-Saal, Faculty of Theology, 2nd floor

A-6020 INNSBRUCK, Karl-Rahner-Platz

Date: 19 October 2011

Time: 16:00 hours

Our event will be held according to the "Chatham House Rules": "When a meeting, or part thereof, is held under the Chatham House Rule, participants are free to use the information received, but neither the identity nor the affiliation of the speaker(s), nor that of any other participant, may be revealed".

A cooperation of the AFA Innsbruck with the Department of European Law and Public International Law, the Department of Political Science of the University of Innsbruck and the United Nations Information Service (UNIS) Vienna